

Ye kings, from error's sleep arise

Richard Worgan

PSALM 2. Ver: 10. 11. 12.

Kings exhorted to Worship God and his Messiah

Text: James Merrick, on Ps. 2, vv. 10-12

This edition by Edmund Gooch
released into the public domain,
January 2013.

Slow

Ye kings, from er - ror's sleep a - rise; Ye jud - ges of the O, lest ye pe - rish from in the way hand That leads to realms of
If yet but kind - ling in his hand The venge - ful bolt up -

7

earth, be wise; And warmed with du - teous zeal, con - end - less day, With aw hap - ful love, with on ho - ly
- lift - ed stand, Thrice py, who on him de - 12

spire To serve with joy th'e - ter hope - nal Sire.
fear His Son, the world's great - migh - ty vere.
pend, And thank - ful, own th'al - migh - ty friend.

Notes:

The first verse only of the text is underlaid in the source, with the other two verses given here printed after the music.
The C on beat 1 of bar 8 and the B on beat 2 of bar 11 in the 1st soprano part are both printed in the original as small crotchet grace notes. This setting is attributed to 'Rd. Worgan' in the source.